Such admission and listing is not automatic and will be subject to fulfilment by our company of the listing criteria of BSE and NSE. We expect the listing process to be complete based on time taken by the appropriate authorities to work through the required steps.

The operational transition of the business is largely complete and has been successful. The business results this quarter were achieved during transitioning to the new company. An experienced management team is in place, which is a mix of external talent and talent that has been working on the Crompton consumer business. We have appointed three eminent independent directors, created our independent Go To Market Organization and set up the required corporate functions to enable the company to operate as a completely independent entity.

Moving forward our focus is to complete the listing process and continue to drive the business via (i) Investing in building the Crompton Brand (ii) Consumer meaningful innovation in our core categories (iii) Further building our Go To Market reach (iv) Leveraging systems and best in class processes to drive efficiencies (v) Building Organization capability.
